In the Western Canada Baseball League championship series Calgary and Regina have each won four games. The deciding game will be played at Calgary on Saturday afternoon, with the betting odds on the Calgary Brumks. Baseball fans here have taken a great interest in this series of games.

On Thursday morning the house occupied by Harry Mosley on the A. M. Berg farm east of town burned to the ground. The fire is supposed to have started from the chimney and had evident been burning for some time before it was discovered, as it had gained such headway that it could not be put out. Most of the furniture was saved.

The old saying that "they are wise children who know their own fathers" (cows) was demonstrated in a very funny manner in Clareholm last week. While going to his work in the town offices the other morning one of the town officials noticed some cows grazing on the street. The soundkeeper being away on his holidays, left no other way out of it but to take the offending cows to the pound, and the official immediately took them in charge. After a lot of trouble the cows were safely landed behind two locked gates and the regular charge placed against them. In about one hour after the captor of the cattle received a visit from his worthy father and asked who put the cows behind the bars, as they belonged to him and that he was taking them to pasture and while his truck was turned the cows were captured. The results of this mix-up are not known at time of writing but it is understood that "Father has not spoke to Willie since."

Be sure to see "The Right to Happiness" at the Rex Sept. 24-25

Stand Up For the Law

Recent events in Canada, both east and west point to the necessity of great care being exercised, not so much by the authorities, perhaps, as by the people in general to safeguard one of the Dominion's basic traditions and at the same time protect the liberties of the citizen.

Canada has long been recognized throughout the world and especially in the great republic to the south, as a country where law was respected and obeyed, where even-handed justice was administered to high and low, rich and poor alike, and where sooner or later the long arm of the law would get the guilty. In the United States, where so many murders escape just punishment for their crimes, where the law's deities are almost interminable, and where as a result of a lack of public confidence in the machinery of justice, lynchings are not infrequently resorted to, the reputation here by Canada was an invaluable asset. It is an asset Canada cannot afford to lose, nor allow to be trampled.

A few weeks ago, however, a group of men in southern Saskatchewan took the law into their own hands and drove a labor agitator out of the country, threatening him with tar and feathers if he returned. On August 16, at Thorold, Ont., a mob stormed the town jail and finally set fire to it in an effort to take a prisoner from the officers of the law in order that they might execute him themselves, although he had not yet been found guilty of the crime of which he was accused. Fortunately, common sense prevailed and the British fair play was effective in restraining the passions of the mob before it took the irretrievable step.

People, however, must be on their guard against such exhibitions and acts, if Canada is not to suffer in the eyes of the world, and the rights and liberties of its own people placed in jeopardy. Even in the earlier days when the west was "wild and woolly," and at the time of the stampede to the Yukon, law was maintained and respected so effectively as to call forth the admiration of all countries. It is as necessary as ever that it should continue to be maintained. The world has passed through a great war and human life seemed to be the cheapest commodity in the world, and as a result many people do not look upon the life of human life as seriously as of old. But the old conception of the sacredness of human life must be fully re-established, and it is the duty of all citizens to assist by precept and practice to such restoration, and to oppose by all legitimate means in their power anything that tends to weaken and destroy confidence in the law.

The maintenance of law and order is the foundation of any organized state. Without respect for law, and lacking order, society could not exist, all property would soon cease to have any value, family life would be dissolved, and human life ultimately be the plaything of the murderer and assassin.

Do away with law, and respect for it—without, of course, would follow the non-enforcement of law—and disorder would reign supreme. All mankind would revert to only one law—the law of the jungle, the law that might is right and might will prevail.

Every man and woman realizes in their innermost beings that this is true, and that the whole organism on which human society has been evolved and erected because of general acceptance of the absolute necessity of a state of law and order. Mob rule is evil and vicious in the highest degree.

The maintenance of order rests absolutely in respect to the upholding of the law. And the upholding of the law—which, after all, is but the concrete expression of the will of the majority of the people—is dependent upon respect for and unequalled support of those who are appointed to administer the laws which the people through their elected representatives have enacted for the common good and protection of all.

There can be only one outcome resulting from a loss of public confidence in the administration of justice in this country, and through the acts of the people taking the law into their own hands—law will be superseded by license; anarchy will replace order. Life and property will become playthings of the passions of men, and all those precious liberties and that freedom, to defend and maintain which our heroic soldiers died and suffered in their hundreds of thousands, and which alone can be maintained under a system of law and order, will be destroyed, and a state of disorder and chaos prevail. Every person who joins in or cheers on a mob is undermining the foundations of that law which is his own safeguard and the protection of his family and his property.

SUMMER HEAT
HARD ON BABY

No season of the year is so dangerous to the life of little ones as the summer. The excessive heat throws the little stomach out of order so quickly that almost prompt aid is at hand the baby may be beyond all human help before the mother realizes when diarrhoea, cholera infantum, dysentery and colic are most prevalent. Of these troubles may prove deadly if not promptly treated. The best remedy is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the bowels, soothe the stomach and keep baby healthy. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

To Make a Pound of Honey

It is Clear That the "Busy Bee" is Well Named

The Manchester Guardian quotes experts as saying that this is to be a good season for honey, and it adds that many people will welcome the honey, though few realize the enormous effort a single pound of honey necessitates on the part of the bees. "In a pound jar," The Guardian explains, "there is the concentrated essence of over 60,000 flowers. It is calculated that to make a pound of clear honey the bees must take nectar from 62,500 blooms and make 2,750,000 visits in the process. Often the journey from the hive to the flowers and back runs to two miles, so that the making of a pound of honey entails journeys aggregating over 5,000,000 miles. When it is remembered that a single colony of bees will produce from sixty to eighty pounds of honey in a season it is clear that the 'busy bee' is well named."

U. S. History at Oxford

From Oxford comes the interesting note that Viscount Rothermere has offered to Oxford University through the chancellor, on certain specified conditions, a sum of $100,000 for the purpose of erecting a memorial to the friendship of the history of the United States of America, to be styled the Harold Vyvyan Harmsworth Professorship of American History in memory of his son, Capt. Hon. Harold Vyvyan Harmsworth, M.C., Irish Guards, formerly commander of Christ Church, who was killed in the war.

Black Bass for Lake Nipigon

The south end of Orient Bay on Lake Nipigon, and Kearnan Lake were recently stocked with three hundred black bass. These fish were shipped from Toronto in tanks and released in the water by Neil McDougall, sportsman's representative of the Canadian National railways.

Advocate Tree Planting

Trees of Benefit in Preventing Evaporation in the Summer

The tree planting car sent to the prairie provinces by the Canadian Forestry Association has been stopped for inspection at many of the leading towns and cities. Mr. Archibald Mitchell, who is in charge of the exhibits in the car is advocating shelter belts as a protection against soil drifting and other wind damage. In his opinion ten percent of the country should be under trees to make it fit for habitation.

Questioned as to the method of planting Mr. Mitchell said:

"Strips of wood across each quarter section, running north and south, would go a long way toward solving the worst. Even if the growing of grasses became universal, as is proposed, the trees would be of the greatest benefit in retaining the snow in the winter and preventing evaporation in the summer. They store a greater supply of moisture for the growth of the grass."

Mr. Mitchell maintains that the planting of trees is not a difficult job as one man and one team can plant 1,000 trees in a day, that it takes 1,800 trees to cover an acre at 45¢, which is work for two men for one day.

"Two acres in two days wouldn't take much time from the wheat planting season," he remarked. "Usually the farmer neglects planting trees because he thinks he cannot spare the time, but the two days taken out of the middle of the planting period would not be lost, but would simply be transferred to the end and the small amount of damage incurred by the change through a possible frost is not compared with the advantage to be derived in later years from the trees. Three years the farmer may be thankful that he spent two days to plant them as it is possible the only crop he will grow will be that behind the shelter belt."

HAIR SOON TOO
SHORT TO DO UP

A little "Danderine" stops your hair coming out and doubles its beauty

To stay falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of delightful "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter for a few cents, pour a little on your hand and rub it into the scalp. After several applications the hair naturally stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff. Help your hair grow strong, thick and long and become soft, glossy and twice as beautiful and abundant.

Mittler's Worm Powders do not need the after-bell of castor oil or any purgatives to complete their thoroughness, because they are found in themselves. One dose of them and the worms found inside of your children, will end the worm trouble by making the stomach and bowels untenable to the parasites. And not only this, but the powders will be found to exert most powerful influences in the digestive organs.

Great Fishing Territory

The lakes of Northern Saskatchewan are from a fishing point of view the best in Canada. The opinion of G. Sigurdson, a fisherman who with his crew of three caught 100 pounds of whitefish in Buffalo Lake last year. It is stated that Buffalo Lake is teeming with fish, and is only one of the many similar lakes of the north. The only difficulty in transportation, and with one railway it is estimated that at least 300 carloads of fish could be brought out of the northern lakes each season.

150 Year Old Grape Vine

At Hampton Court, London, in one of the greenhouses is the famous vine planted in 1768 by "Capability" Brown, a famous landscape gardener of the eighteenth century. The vine is the Black Hamburg variety. The vines in recent years have been good, but this season the number and quality of the bunches is rather above the average. The length of the vine is five feet at the base. Several years ago twelve bunches of fruit from the vine were sent to the Royal Horticultural Society exhibition and the combined weight was 42 pounds.

Supplies Scarce in Far North

Arrivals from the head of Pelly River, 200 miles north of Fort Selkirk, bear word that the stores in that district have been out of supplies for months. They have not had a grain of sugar since Christmas. The steamer Thialf, however, has just arrived at the head of navigation with ample supplies for the coming winter.

SHORT OF BREATH
Could Hardly Walk
Without Resting.

When you go to a physician to be examined for any heart trouble, one of the first questions he asks is "Are you short of breath?" Now, if your old heart becomes affected there ensues a feeling of choking and oppression, the heart beats, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness and a weak, sinking, all gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung, Mittler's Heart and Nerve Pills are just the remedy you require. They regulate and stimulate the heart, strengthen and restore the whole nerve system.

Mr. Stephen Croise, East Clifford, N.S., writes: "I suffered for five years with heart trouble. I could hardly walk from the house to the store without resting, so I had to get so short of breath. Doctors could not help me. My wife told me to get a box of Mittler's Heart and Nerve Pills and I felt better after taking three boxes. They have made me quite well. I am now helping my son to work the farm, and can truthfully say I feel like a different man."

Price 35¢ a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Mills & Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

British Big Bertha

A Huge Gun With a Range of Eighty Miles

When the freudons of Sheffield was conferred on Earl Beatty, the fact that super "Big Bertha" was being built at Vickers' works was disclosed by the Lord Mayor. Its length is 80 feet and it can throw an eight-inch shell between seventy and eighty miles. In consequence of the extraordinary high velocity of the projectiles, the gun will need re-loading at frequent intervals. An earlier gun of this type was delivered to the government after the signing of the armistice.

SAVE

Those High-priced
MACHINES

An unprotected boiler has only a working life of 100 days—and it is with all other machines. An actual depreciation of 15 to 25% when left to the weather. When housed properly the depreciation is reduced to the ordinary wear and tear caused by the work—3 to 10%.

An implement shed that contains housing for your machines, a tool room and a garage would be the ideal compact arrangement for the protection and upkeep of your machines. This is a preparation that pays handsomely toward the farmer.

BUILD NOW

Pauline Frederick whose latest Goldwyn picture, "Bonds of Love" will be shown at the Rex theater on Monday and Tuesday, will appear in the latest costumes. Another gown is of beaded georgette crepe, with a very dainty circle and a large georgette hat, fairly smothered with ostrich feathers. Each of Miss Frederick's costumes is as individual as the personality that wears them.

Anarchist outrage in New York

New York, Sept. 16.—A mysterious explosion this noon in Wall Street, near Broadway, believed by department of justice and police investigators to have been caused by an infernal machine, rocked the heart of New York's financial district, leaving death and destruction in its wake. At least 36 persons were killed and several hundred injured. The banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co., the sub-treasury and the assay office were partially wrecked and property damage estimated in excess of $1,000,000 was caused by the blast.

To Control Soil Drifting

Method is to Seed Only on Summer-Fallow

Valuable hints on the handling of soil to prevent soil drifting were given at a meeting of grain growers at Regina, the speaker being the manager of the Noble farm in Alberta. In spite of the fact that these farms are in the centre of a district more or less affected this year by high winds than almost any other portion of western Canada, the methods of farming practiced were so successful that practically no loss of crop resulted from this cause.

SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL FAIR

The Clareholm and District Annual School Fair, held on Tuesday the 14th inst., at the School of Agriculture, was a splendid success. The number of exhibitors and the quality of exhibits compared most favorably with those of previous years. The following schools took part in the Fair:

Clareholm, Gramin, Staveley, Grin Belt, Hooper, Five Mile, Star Line, Clareholm View, Prairie View, Trout Creek, Northern Light, Meadow Creek, Pine Coulee, Table, Trout, Mountain Peak, Prairie Dell, Harper, Green Bank, Schaffer, Badger Flats.

The grain exhibits were judged by Mr. B. J. Whitbread and Mr. J. C. Hooper. The quality of the grain was excellent, and the show of sunflowers in this section was very large. The exhibitors showed great ability in the selection and preparation of the sheaves and seed grain, and in this section the competition was very keen.

Garden produce, under Section B, was very large, and Mr. Hooper and Mr. Whitbread, who also judged these exhibits, were of opinion that the space allotted to the vegetables was hardly large enough to show them to full advantage. Considering the diffidence under which the youthful gardeners labored, such as lack of moisture, wind, outcrops, beet weevils, grasshoppers and other disadvantages, the quality was unsurpassable and reflects the greatest credit on the young exhibitors.

A word or two might be said regarding the classes in Section A, Nature Study. Several schools sent exhibits of wild flowers and weeds mixed, and also of wild flowers and cut flowers mixed. The classes are very distinctly stated on the Prior Lists and it is disappointing to the judges to have to disqualify entries owing to conditions not being complied with, besides making it impossible for judging.

The collection of insects was rather disappointing, only three cases being shown out of the whole district.

The live stock exhibits under Section J were well up to the usual standard and collected great credit on those who went to the trouble of caring for the stock and chickens and then brought them in (some from a long distance from town) and exhibited them. There were more calves than foris, and several lambs, and we hope to see this section in greater prominence next year.

The girls' exhibits under Sections E and F, Domestic Science and Sewing respectively, were large. Miss Alice M. Jackson and Miss Nellie Ainsley of the School of Agriculture judged in these sections, and were delighted with the excellent work and showing of the exhibitors.

Sections G and H, Writing and Art, were judged by the lady teachers of the public and high school, and the numerous entries in many classes made their task, though pleasant, very difficult, as the quality of the work was uniformly good.

Section L, Manual Arts, was regrettably disappointing, only one entry under this section being made. Teachers and parents would do well to see if this section of the Fair can be made more use of next year, as it provides great scope for the ingenuity and skill of the young people in the different classes.

The athletic sections, both boys' and girls' were a surprise to those in charge of them. The number and keenness of the competitors was in tensely gratifying, and all the races were keenly contested. The relay races in both sections were strongly competed in, and if the schools can enter next year one representative team in this race for the whole school, it will be one of the best events in this section. One feature this year was the excellent jumping in the boys' section.

The girls' basket ball game between grades 10 and 11 of Clareholm high school was keen and full of vim. Miss Gregory umpired the game to the satisfaction both of the players and the large crowd of spectators, which was eventually won by grade 11.

Great praise is due to the officers of the Fair who carried the whole proceedings through without a hitch. The ladies supplying refreshments during the day from the Anglican, Presbyterian and Methodist churches deserve a vote of appreciation for their untiring efforts.

It is to be hoped that the various school boards of the schools interested in this Fair will do their best to stimulate and encourage the pupils in their school districts in this most important branch of educational work, and will assist the organizers of the Fair with money and personal assistance as much as possible and show their lively interest in the welfare of their community.

Next week's issue will contain the list of awards in the various classes and sections.

Five thousand people take part in "The Right to Happiness." A whole city built and destroyed in order to complete this tremendous master production, see it at the Rex Friday and Saturday September 24 and 25.

PAULINE FREDERICK IN POWERFUL NEW GOLD-WYN PICTURE

Latest Production, First Photodrama by Louis Sherwin, the Eminent Dramatic Critic, is Story of Mother Love and Family Jealousy

Pauline Frederick's latest Goldwyn picture, "Bonds of Love," by Louis Sherwin, the eminent dramatic critic, is a powerful emotional photodrama worthy of the sterling ability of the versatile star. In none of Miss Frederick's recent pictures has she been called upon to play the awakening instinct of mother love; but in her new screen vehicle, which comes to the Rex theater Monday and Tuesday, she assumes the role of second wife who has sincerely grown to love the child of her husband's first wife and is willing to sacrifice herself for the sake of the child's welfare. This unusual combination of self-sacrifice and mother love for another's child develops into a masterly climax in which Miss Frederick has many opportunities to reveal some of the subtlest touches which have ever been seen in photodramas. Her ability to express suppressed emotional struggle has been shown in her recent pictures, "The Fear Woman" and "The Peace of Roaring River."

And in "Bonds of Love" fresh opportunities for disclosing her understanding of repressed action occur in every reel. Some of the scenes in "Bonds of Love" were taken at Santa Catalina Island where Miss Frederick in a racing motor boat performed a thrilling rescue of the child who had jumped into a launch and was heading to the rocks which guard the narrow to the open sea. Besides the rescue, many other scenes on Catalina Island unfold the sumbit phase of this garden spot in the Pacific.
